

SIX NABBED BY POLICE IN RAID ON COFFEE HOUSE

Stud Poker Party on East Second Stopped Last Night

An obvious display of money in a stud poker game resulted in the arrest of Pete Stignitz, 30, proprietor of a Greek coffee house at 218 East Second street, and five other players, all Greeks, at 9:30 o'clock last night.

Officer George Rogers saw the players thru a window of the coffee house, and, together with Officers Carroll and Cuervorst, staged a raid.

A small amount of cash and a deck of playing cards was the evidence. Nick Ross, a waiter at the DeLuxe cafe, was released shortly after the arrest when his employer furnished $10 bond.

The Greeks will appear before Magistrate Harold Metcalf, Monday morning.

MANY ENJOYED THE RIVER TRIP TO MUSCATINE

The active class of Trinity Cathedral, of which Mrs. F. J. Parker is teaching, gave its third annual excursion to Muscatine Saturday on the steamer Capitol of the Streckfus line.

It was an ideal day for a river trip and some 700 people enjoyed the event. The affair was a splendid success, in the neighborhood of $100 being cleared. The Junior Activities assisted.

ing it over. Daughman went to a neighboring farmhouse and went to sleep. He was found unconscious in the morning and brought to a hospital here.

Beats It For Germany After Beating Wife

P. Schwarz, Cleona Twp. Farmer, Gives Sheriff's Office Ha-Ha.

Disappearing after administering a severe beating to his wife, Peter Schwarz, a prominent young farmer of Cleona township, has fled the country and taken refuge in Germany, according to information received here Saturday by Raymond & Rymann, who are representing Ferd Schwarz, father of the missing man, in litigation against the son.

The sheriff's office has been searching for Schwarz for a month to serve him with papers in a divorce action started by Mrs. Elizabeth Schwarz on June 14, four days following the attack made upon her by Schwarz at their farm home near Durant.

In addition to the divorce case, Ferd Schwarz, father of the missing man, has started a suit against the son and his wife to collect $1,200.00 alleged due on a promissory note.

The message to the attorney is brief and simply states that he has arrived in Germany and is among friends. He advises the sheriff's office to cease searching for him because the task is hopeless, he says. Schwarz and his wife were married March 25, 1919 and are the parents of two children, a daughter, age 27 months and a son, age 15 months.

In her divorce petition Mrs. Schwarz says her husband attacked her with a gun and threatened to take her life. She says she persuaded him to spare her for the sake of their two children. A. W. Hamann is her attorney.

With Schwarz in Germany further search will probably be abandoned and default judgments taken against the man when the cases are called for trial in district court.

REV. C. R. NEEL IS ATTENDING STATE BOARD MEETING

Rev. C. R. Neel, pastor of the First Christian church left Saturday for Des Moines to attend the meeting of the state board of the Christian church of which he is a member. There is re-organization of the board planned, with election of officers. Mr. Neel expects to be absent until Tuesday.

Robert R. Vernon, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will speak at the morning service today at the church.

TRAVELERS HEAR FINE REPORT OF R. C. KELLY

Post D. Travelers Protective association, held its monthly meeting last evening at the Chamber of Commerce. R. C. Kelly gave a splendid report of the proceedings of the national convention held in June at Atlantic City and which he attended as a delegate from Post D.

PHYSICIANS TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING HERE

Physicians of eastern Iowa and western Illinois will meet at the Outing club here on July 12, when the annual meeting of the Central District Medical association will be held. The business meeting will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with the annual banquet following at 6 p. m.

In addition to several addresses given by prominent Tri-City physicians, Dr. J. W. Seids of Moline, president of the association, and Drs. A. P. Donohoe, G. F. Harkness, Paul A. White and William L. Donnelly, all of Davenport, there will be addresses by several speakers from out of the city.

Among the latter will be Dr. Milton M. Fortis, assistant professor of medicine, Rush Medical college, Chicago; Dr. H. E. Robertson, pathologist of the University of Minnesota and the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., and Dr. Frederick H. Falls, professor of obstetrics and gynecology, University of Iowa, Iowa City.

$300 CLEARED SATURDAY AT MUSIC CENTER

Three hundred dollars is the approximate amount cleared at a card party held at Music Center, 222 1/2 Main street, Saturday afternoon and evening, the proceeds to be applied to the Eticambal fund.

In the afternoon there were 91 tables, with 400 players, it being one of the largest card parties ever held in Davenport. This was one of the earliest of a series of such parties to be held in each of the Tri-Cities. The large hall was attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns and large quantities of flowers from the Bettendorf gardens.

Heading the receiving line was Mrs. Joseph Shorey, chairman of the music department of the Davenport Women's clubs, with Mrs. A. H.

Buckamp, general chairman, and Mrs. J. J. Dorgan. Assisting in the receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Thos. Dougherty, Mrs. Ed Kunkel, Mrs. P. Tornquist, Mrs. Frank Noh, Mrs. E. P. Wingert, Mrs. Mark Silver, Mrs. Estelle Mandeville, Mrs. W. C. Goenne, Miss Etta Gabbert, Mrs. E. W. Suss, and Mrs. D. C. Mackin.

In the afternoon the winners at auction were Mrs. Will Skully and Mrs. Robert Copley, and the "500" winners were Mrs. F. Bretscher and Mrs. E. Sharp. Mrs. Martin Silberstein disposed of a handsome dish for $10, and a cake donated by Miss Ida Dittman brought a tidy sum. Prizes were furnished by various business firms of Davenport, for which the committee wishes to extend its appreciation.

The Appollo Mandolin club, composed of boys and girls of high school age, directed by Mrs. Martin Silberstein, furnished delightful music Saturday evening. Dainty refreshments were served both in the afternoon and in the evening. In addition to the main hall, the studios were thrown open.

The Music Center party was the first of two events to be given there.

The second affair will be held in violin given by Arthur P. Griggs, by Miss Alma Nagel.

The dish donated by Mrs. Martin Silberstein was won by Mrs. Weid. They went to Mrs. Arvid Samuelson the ice box cake of Miss Ida Dittman at bridge and Mrs. J. P. man by Mrs. J. J. Dorgan and the (Gorman of Davenport at "500."

WHAT IS HEDDING COLLEGE?

A College of Liberal Arts, Not a University

What departments of instruction does it have? A Conservatory of Music, which requires two years of Liberal Arts work and two years of Music.

Does Hedding offer other special courses? Yes, literary, pre-professional, pre-medical, two years of engineering, two of agriculture, and courses in business administration.

With what university is Hedding accredited? Its credits are accepted at the University of Illinois, and many other institutions.

When was Hedding established? A Ladies' Seminary was started in Abingdon in 1857. In '73, the doors of Hedding College opened to men and women.

Where is it located? At Abingdon, Illinois.

What are its denominational affiliations? It is a part of the educational system of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Are there any denominational restrictions for students?

Students of any or no faith are welcomed to its halls.

What is its present enrollment? 150. The College of Liberal Arts shows a larger attendance of men than women.

Is Hedding's present location favorable for expansion?

No. Within fifty miles are Knox, Lombard, Monmouth, and Macomb State Normal. Then Carthage and Bradley Polytechnic Institute at Peoria are fifty-two miles from Hedding.

Will Hedding continue on its present campus at Abingdon?

By action of the Board of Trustees, it will remove to Moline, Illinois, as soon as necessary accommodations are prepared.

What and where is Moline? It is a city of thirty thousand people in Rock Island County, Illinois, on the Mississippi River.

What railroad accommodations has Moline? Railroads go into Moline from nine different directions. Besides this, there is the Tri-City Railroad System which reaches 140,000 people.

Are there other colleges within fifty miles? One—Augustana, at Rock Island.

Does Moline have an available campus site? Three desirable ones are now under consideration.

What are Hedding's sources of income? Student fees, earnings from a small endowment, and the annual Conference educational collection.

What is the income from tuition? $10,000.00.

Why does not Hedding increase its tuition and meet its expenses? That would deprive many bright capable young folks of college preparation. Many can not pay larger fees.

What is the annual budget? $58,000.00.

How much endowment has Hedding? $359,460.00.

What is the present income from endowment? $27,000.00.

How much endowment does Hedding need? At least $1,000,000.00.

If there a deficit in current expenses? Yes, $20,000.00 this year.

What is the total present indebtedness? $67,000.00.

Why shouldn't Hedding make ends meet as a business concern does?

Because Hedding is a philanthropy, not a business.

What is the amount of the present asking from Rock Island County?

$800,000.00.

How will this sum be used? $550,000.00 for buildings and equipment, $250,000.00 for the expense incurred in moving to Moline.

What buildings are under immediate consideration? Administration building, Science Hall, Gymnasium, central heating plant, and Women's Dormitory.

What is the size of Hedding's faculty? There are nineteen professors and instructors, all of whom have standard scholastic preparation.

Has Hedding given a worthy account of itself in the educational world? 20% of its graduates are engaged in educational work.

Has it served largely? It has served largely, in all professions. A large number of its graduates are well known lawyers and physicians.

What is the name of this present financial movement in Rock Island County? Hedding College Relocation.

Who authorized it? The Board of Trustees on the recommendation of a large number of members of the Central Illinois Annual Conference.

What are the general terms on which pledges are made? They are on a five-year basis, which affords opportunity for business to improve and money to be easier.

Do These Facts Justify Moline and Rock Island County in Pledging $800,000.00 to Hedding College?
